Development of Teaching and Learning Chinese Language & Culture in the Danish Context – Invitation to a Workshop on Motivation, Institutional Facilitation and Innovative Pedagogy

Dear all,

With support of CI Headquarters, Hanban and co-organized by Confucius Institute for Innovation & Learning, Aalborg University (CI-AAU), Beijing Normal University (BNU) and Confucius Classroom at Støvring Gymnasium (CC-SG), A two-day workshop about the development of Chinese Language & Culture (CLC) teaching and learning in the Danish context is going to be held on April 4th – 5th, at Aalborg University in Aalborg. It includes a diversity of forms such as presentations, dialogues, team based and panel discussions. The theme of this workshop will be on Motivation, Institutional Facilitation and Innovative Pedagogy. The workshop aims to identify difficulties and challenges in CLC in Denmark, to share experience on teaching, learning and discuss about how to provide institutional support, and to establish a network for a sustainable development of CLC teaching and learning in Denmark. The workshop is mainly targeted to Chinese language teachers who have experiences or those who have interested in CLC teaching and learning, administrators or managers from educational institutions, researchers and other academic staff with interest in this field.

Attached are the workshop announcement and registration form. We kindly invite you to register by filling in the form online or send the attached form with your information to ci_info@learning.aau.dk before Feb 28th, 2011. For more information, please see our official website www.cidenmark.com.

We've invited you to fill in the Registration form. To fill it in, please visit: <https://spreadsheets.google.com/viewform?formkey=dFIFWXZwX3J4XzhXeV9PWUzRHlnRHc6MQ>
